

Baker Manock & Jensen Welcomes New Attorneys

Kevin Koligian, a native of Fresno, went to Bullard High School before attending the University of Southern California. He graduated from the University of Southern California, receiving a Bachelor of Arts in Psychology and a minor in Business. Kevin went to law school at University of the Pacific, McGeorge School of Law. While at McGeorge, Kevin spent two years competing on the school's Mock Trial team. His practice areas are business litigation, agribusiness, personal injury and professional liability defense.

Amanda Neal, a native of Bakersfield, graduated with honors from California State University, Bakersfield with a B.A. in Political Science and a double minor in Criminal Justice and Philosophy. She graduated With Great Distinction from University of the Pacific, McGeorge School of Law in May. In addition to her law degree, Amanda received a Government Affairs Certificate from McGeorge in 2008, and is a member of The Order of the Coif. She is practicing transactional law - primarily in the areas of public agency and water law.

Elisabeth Fulmer Tietjen was born and raised in Visalia. She graduated from Mount Whitney High School and went on to receive her Bachelor of Arts degree from the University of California Santa Barbara. Elisabeth received her J.D. from Santa Clara University School of Law in 2008, where she graduated cum laude and was made a member of The Order of the Coif. She currently practices civil litigation focusing primarily in the areas of business, agribusiness and professional liability defense.