

Jerry H. Mann

Jerry H. Mann focuses on civil litigation and business transactional services. Many of his clients are in the construction industry. He has extensive experience in all phases of the construction process from contract review and preparation, to handling bid protests and claims in both public and private works projects.

Background

After graduating with Honors from the University of California at Berkeley, Mr. Mann attended Loyola Law School. He received his Juris Doctorate degree in 1980 and graduated cum laude. While at Loyola, he was a member of the St. Thomas More Honor Society.

Upon being admitted to practice law in 1980, Mr. Mann served as a Law Clerk to the Honorable George Hopper and the Honorable George N. Zenovich, who were both Associate Justices for the California Court of Appeal, Fifth Appellate District.

Prior to joining BMJ in 2019, Mr. Mann was a founding member of the law firm of Perkins, Mann & Everett, Inc.

Mr. Mann serves on the board of the Associated General Contractors California San Joaquin District and volunteers for several non-profit organizations in the Fresno community. He is a member of the Litigation, Business and Employment Law Sections of the State Bar of California.

Areas of Practice

- Business Litigation
- Civil Litigation
- Construction Defects
- Employment Law

Contact

jmann@bakermanock.com

Education

- Loyola Law School (J.D.,1980)
- University of California, Berkeley (B.A., 1977) Honors

Bar Admissions

- State Bar of California (1980)
- United States District Court Eastern and Northern Districts of California (1980)